

Photo courtesy of MKCEP

'There seem to be great opportunities for the development of a visually exciting form within the Centre...'
(from 'The Plan for Milton Keynes', MKDC 1970)

The designated area of Milton Keynes pictured in 1970. The original caption reads: 'This photograph shows the area from Bletchley to Wolverton in North Bucks to be developed as a New Town called Milton Keynes. The village in the centre of the picture is Simpson.'

FROM THE BOOK: THE HERITAGE OF MILTON KEYNES

The Story of the original CMK

...told by the people who shaped the initial ideas of Central Milton Keynes

