The Point, Central Milton Keynes

Milton Keynes was the first in the UK to create a purpose-built multiplex cinema – The Point, Central Milton Keynes, 1985

This 10-screen, 2,000-seater cinema started the UK's boom with 40,000 visitors weekly. 'Attracting more than one million admissions in the first year, its immediate success paved the way for further multiplexes proliferating from 1989 onwards.'
