

Milton Keynes Celebrates!

Dickens of a Christmas!

Olney's newest tradition

Olney, the market town famous for its 500-year old Pancake Race, its traditional annual Cherry Fair, its rustic Sunday Farmers' Markets, its historic church of St Peter and St Paul, and its most famous sons – John Newton and William Cowper – has created, since 1993, yet another tradition which looks set to continue for many Christmases to come

'It's all there!'

All the traders dress up in Victorian clothes. There are street entertainers, mulled wine, hog roasts and street music. Father Christmas is in his Grotto and three Craft fairs run concurrently – at the Bull Hotel, the Carlton House Club and the Olney Centre.

'Food, drinks and lots of humour and laughter!'

(Olney Town Council even has a Subcommittee for it, ready to plan for next year!)
