

Home is where the heart is. That's why so many people love living in Milton Keynes.

So make yourself at home in our big-hearted city – there's so much to do. How about cycling to the office on our traffic-free Redways then skiing after work? Lunching in our vibrant restaurant quarter then watching a game in our state-of-the-art football stadium? Or browsing in our world-class shopping centres then relaxing in peaceful green open spaces? Everything in our family-friendly city is within easy reach. Living life to the full is easy here.
