

Traditional MILTON KEYNES

Looking ahead...

Heritage Open Days Weekend

9th – 12th September 2010

The key heritage weekend of the year, Heritage Open Days returns for the fifth year running in Milton Keynes with once again large numbers of FREE events and activities planned for the four days, many of which will be child-friendly and fun. Run in partnership with English Heritage and local partners, venues open their doors for free admission and put on special tasters, workshops, walks, talks and exhibitions.

(See www.heritageopendays.com)