

Great Linford Waterside Festival

Memories and photographs from the festival

"We just played and really enjoyed playing. So it wouldn't really have mattered to me if it was two men and a dog because we just enjoyed playing. The atmosphere was fine. It was kind of a little party atmosphere."

Brad Bradstock – Performer

"My son plays saxophone and at the very last minute he was asked to perform on the Youth Stage. They pulled together a scratch band of friends, and they went down well."

James Easton – Festival Visitor

"Some friends and I were at the festival and my friend's mum – who helps organise the festival – said there was a band that had let them down for the youth stage. We quickly rounded up a few mates who we knew could play and we did a 20 minute set."

Moss Bancroft – Performer

"I remember one of the years when Skunk Anansie were at the recording studio, they were very successful at the time. They actually went out and did a number on stage which I think for those people that saw it that was a bit special."

Pete Winkleman – Benefactor
