

Designer City

Innovation and development in Milton Keynes

The Planners and Designers

The Right Honourable The Lord Campbell of Eskan

Lord 'Jock' Campbell of Eskan

First Chairman of Milton Keynes Development Corporation from 1967 - 1987. He was the man who shaped Milton Keynes by making key appointments, including the master planners and General Manager Fred Roche.

Derek Walker

Chief Architect and Planner at Milton Keynes Development Corporation from 1970 - 76. He recruited the design team attracting Britain's newest architectural talent.

Professor Derek Walker, DipArch RIBA, pictured in 1974

Lord 'Jock' Campbell and Fred Lloyd Roche pictured in 1975

Fred Lloyd Roche

General Manager of Milton Keynes Development Corporation from 1970 and pushed the development forward.

"A fantastic team – Jock Campbell and Fred Roche at the helm. If there was a rule, you found a way to break it and you'd get the job done. It was just a great team to work for".

Henry Diamond

Lord Richard Llewelyn Davies

Along with John Weeks and Walter Bor he created the master plan for Milton Keynes, which was the template for the city's development.

Lord Richard Llewelyn Davies