

What's your passion? There are so many reasons to love Milton Keynes.

Our city is full of surprises. Bold architecture and contemporary living rub shoulders with wide open spaces. Contrasts are around every corner.

Love to eat? Our city serves up cuisine from all over the world with bars, cafés and restaurants galore.

The Hub has great food with plenty of chic pavement eateries on the central piazza. At Xscape, you'll find more culinary choices as well as ten pin bowling, top nightclubs and a 16 screen multiplex cinema. The city's Theatre District has a £30 million development with stylish bars and smart restaurants where you can relax and dine into the early hours. Try out Destination Dining in Queen's Court, thecentre:mk. The new restaurant quarter provides an international flavour and mix, giving more dining options to shoppers to complement their shopping experience.
