

This exhibition is inspired by the BBC's hugely successful exhibition and book - History of the World in 100 Objects.

Although the programmes were broadcast last year, you can listen to them or find out how to get involved by visiting www.bbc.co.uk/ahistoryoftheworld. Join the many people and organisations who are adding their significant objects to the site.

Similarly, if you would like to comment or add your suggestions of what you consider to be a significant 'object' for the History of Milton Keynes please contact the Milton Keynes Heritage Association www.mkheritage.co.uk, or visit any of the five organisations participating (see back page for contacts).

Can you contribute to Milton Keynes' next 85 objects?

- Perhaps a tree voucher for your new home in the 1970s...?
- Or a tool from one of the Bletchley Brickworks...?
- Or a ticket for the Stony Stratford tram... ?
- Or...?
