

Then and Now 1951 & 2011

Celebrating the 60th Anniversary of The Festival of Britain

1951

Celebrations

2011

Festival Week celebration Children dancing at Bletchley Junior School.

Players from the Festival of Britain celebrations in Wolverton.

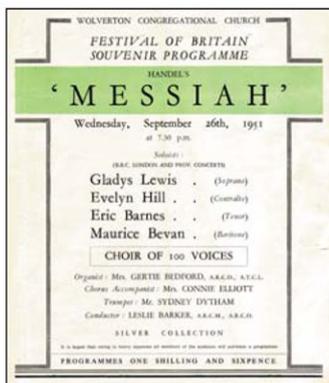

Photo: Crown Copyright, used with kind permission, Director GCHQ

15th July 2011
Her Majesty The Queen visits Bletchley Park, the historic site of secret code-breaking activities and the birthplace of the modern computer. The monarch unveiled a memorial to the men and women codebreakers, honouring the vital role they played in the Second World War.

West Bletchley Carnival June 11th 2011
'This year's Carnival had over 10,000 visitors and raised £10,255.19 for the Bletchley Community Hospital League of Friends.'

Stony Stratford's patriotically decorated High Street to celebrate the Royal Wedding of Prince William and Kate Middleton on 29th April 2011.

