

IT'S CHILD'S PLAY

Special Favourites

I so loved a teddy bear belonging to one of my childhood friends Alan. It was a cloth one, doll-shaped, dressed in trousers and a green jacket. I smuggled him out as often as I could, only for my mother to return him to his rightful owner.

I remember opening a box in my grandparent's flat and there was my Tiny Tears with a pair of dark green tights for me to wear. I loved that doll so much, even when my brothers had poked one of her eyes out and cut some of her hair off!

At Christmas, my pillow case was always quite full. Books and puzzles were the norm and many hours were spent with these. Balls, marbles and skipping ropes made from old clothes lines. One Christmas I had a lovely doll with soft hands like a real baby.

I like collecting Dr Who Battles in Time Cards and I have 250 at the moment.
Tommy Cotesworth Pinckney

My favourite game is Littlest Play Shop because you can collect more than 100 different animals. My favourite pet is the pink pelican because his beak is yellow and yellow is my favourite colour. They don't cost much to buy so I can get lots.

Collecting points in I Spy books – what a good past time that was!
