Arts Open Weekend

Arts Open Weekend

14th, 15th & 16th May 2010

Would you like to try out a drama workshop, have a tour of Milton Keynes Theatre or relax in community gardens to live music?

24 arts organisations in Milton Keynes are ready to show off their delights to you and are offering free workshops, artist demonstrations, talks, tours, film-screenings, exhibitions and concerts.

Pick up a leaflet listing all of these free arts activities which are taking place around Milton Keynes in May and try out some of the creative activities. Visit www.aha-mk.org to find out more information or to find the booking information.
