The Skateboarder's Tale

"From the moment I picked up a skateboard, Milton Keynes became a lot better for me. There's too much enjoyment here to be had! We've got marble everywhere, stairs everywhere, and we're spoilt for choice. When I am not skateboarding down here (Bus Station) I am in one of the many drinking or eating establishments that are in CMK.

The one thing we haven't got is a swimming pool. You can go to 100 different places and eat, you can go fakeparachuting, you can snowboard on real snow but you can't go swimming anywhere. And we need something for the younger generation so they won't get bored and end up getting into trouble and going the wrong way."
