

The logo consists of the letters 'MK' in a bold, white, sans-serif font, centered within a circular graphic. The graphic features concentric, overlapping rings in shades of red, orange, and yellow, creating a sense of motion and energy.

The Milton Keynes Mix

A unique region's blend

Yaw Asiyama – The Artist

Yaw Asiyama

What Black Women Want

Yaw has lived in Milton Keynes for many years, bringing his colourful personality and creative skills to the city in many different ways. He is a painter, poet, lyricist, chef, designer, actor, story teller, playwright and, most recently, a film maker.

black talent in MK during Black History Month over recent years and, with a zero budget, he is capturing What Black Women Want on film. Yaw's story telling skills are popular in local schools.

Drawing on his Ghanaian heritage, his production of Slave Story has featured in 4 MK venues. He has produced a series of Black Nights to celebrate

'It's impossible to restrain Yaw's enthusiasm! He is one multi-talented individual.'

