Triffic Films

Triffic was started in 1989 by Tim Searle and Tobin Goffe in a small unit in Broughton Manor Farm.

Now based in Stony Stratford, Triffic produces a WIDE range of projects from live action, 3d CGI and 2d animation, interactive design, short films, pilots, series, commercials and features.

'We're the team behind the world's first topical animated sketch show in '2DTV' (ITV1). We made one of the most distinctive and innovative series in 'I Am Not An Animal' (BBC2), the iconic anti-war promo for George Michael's 'Shoot the Dog' as well as some of the most memorable title sequences on television with 'Have I Got News For You', 'The Catherine Tate Show', 'Lab Rats', 'Ideal', 'Coogan's Run', 'Two Fat Ladies' and many others.'

Our current projects include 'The Horrible Histories' for Lion TV/CBBC, 'Poetry Pie' for CBeebies and 'Massive' for BBC Manchester.'
