

OUR PLACE MK

What's Near You?

Buckingham Chantry Chapel: A bookshop set in Buckinghamshire's oldest building

Long Crendon Courthouse is a charming manorial building set in an idyllic village

Boarstall Tower: An impressive 14th century gatehouse and moat

One of the many unique carvings inside Claydon House

Milton Keynes is in close proximity to a number of unique National Trust properties – here are just a few of them...

Claydon House, an outwardly classic Georgian home has some of the most unique and fantastic rococo interiors in the country. The surrounding estate has a tea-room, restaurant and several art galleries to explore.

Don't miss the chance to visit Boarstall Tower – open on special dates throughout the year this 15th century gatehouse is not to be missed! Nearby is the Duck Decoy, one of only three working Decoys in the country – come and see a piece of living history!

These are just a few of the many National Trust properties in your local area. Join The National Trust and visit them all for free!

For opening times, prices and more information please contact 01280 822850 or visit www.nationaltrust.org.uk

Boarstall Nature Reserve: Enjoy the wildlife and flowers on a walk around the Reserve